~~Record~~SUBJECT: Coordinated USG Follow-up to Recent Terrorist
Attacks (C)

We are hopeful that the hostage situation in Beirut will come to a successful close in the very near future. If it does, a coordinated interagency effort must be conducted to receive and debrief our citizens as they are repatriated. (C)

- The Department of State will take the lead in coordinating an interagency effort to receive and debrief U.S. hostages currently being held in Beirut. The FBI will have the lead in directing the debriefing process. The Departments of State, DoD and the CIA will provide assistance as necessary in the debriefings. The Department of Defense shall provide requisite facilities, aircraft and ground transportation support for this effort. As lead agency, the Department of State will prepare and coordinate appropriate press guidance and Congressional notification/briefings. (C)
